

ISNAO 2017

International Summer School on the Labrador Sea and the North Atlantic Subpolar Gyre

APPLICATION FORM

TERMS OF REFERENCE

ISNAO International Summer School will be held in Bonne Bay Laboratory, Western Newfoundland. The school will be focused on integrating knowledge about the Labrador Sea and Sub-Polar Gyre using an interdisciplinary perspective. We will incorporate the most current understanding of ocean dynamics, biology and chemistry.

The school is open to graduate students and postdocs from around the world. Participants are expected to stay for the entire duration of the summer school.

Accommodation and board will be provided to all students. Travel funds are limited and will be provided only to a limited number of applicants.

Selection criteria will be based on the statement of interest, support letter and CV. Priority will be given to active students and postdocs with a keen interest in the Subpolar Gyre.
